

WILL DAVIDSON
ACCEPT A CALL?

POLITICAL RUMORS SAY HE WOULD LIKE TO RUN AGAIN.

A CONVENTION POSSIBILITY

It May Be Possible That the Milwaukee Gathering Will Decide He Must Be A Candidate.

Madison, Wis., May 25.—The one thing necessary to bring Gov. J. O. Davidson formally into the field as a candidate for re-election and re-election is endorsement by the "loyalty-to-taft" conference which has been called to meet in Milwaukee June 8, 1910. Davidson earnestly desires to remain in the executive office until the new $6,000,000 statehouse is well along towards completion, and until other propositions in which he has interest of himself are settled.

He has, however, felt that he could not gracefully assume even the attitude of a receptive candidate unless some formal representative republican body declare in his favor and call upon him to take the field. He felt that in view of the fact that the republicans of the state had twice elected him governor and that by reason of their election of him as lieutenant governor he succeeded to that office upon the resignation of the then Gov. La Follette.

For months Gov. Davidson has consistently declared his personal inclination to retire from politics and devote himself to private interests. The exigencies of politics, however, lead always to the unexpected, and this is why he now faces the possibility of being again the nominee for the executive of the state.

A combination of circumstances have united to make Davidson's possible candidacy a subject for serious discussion by the state.

Senator Fairchild, an announced candidate, made himself impossible for a large republican following by his open hostility to county option legislation. Fears of alienating this class of voters have caused the leaders seriously to question whether his withdrawal would not be advisable, and to substitute the name of Gov. Davidson as a man who will be in position to take a non-committal ground on this non-ignorable public question. It is his advantage, from a political standpoint, that he will be in a position to reply that county option legislation is a matter for the legislature to handle, not the governor, and few question that he would sign such a bill should a legislature pass one. It is said that two weeks ago Gov. Davidson prepared an announcement of his candidacy for re-election, but that for some reason he refused to issue it.

An opinion was read that the board has the right to make one hundred fifty thousand dollars appropriated for expenditure in three years, if it wishes, providing that it be used for the purposes specified in the appropriation. The expectation was that fifty thousand dollars would be spent each year.

BANKERS' MEETING DISCUSSES KEEPING A CONTINGENT FUND

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., May 25.—Members of group No. 2 of the Wisconsin Bankers' Association at the opening session of the sixth annual meeting here today, spoke sharply in condemnation of the practice of some banks in maintaining a contingent fund, which was termed a method of covering up the clearings and in violation of the banking laws. So serious was the subject, that the president referred to the resolutions committee for further thought.

The high express rates came in for a hard knocking, and the bankers expressed an opinion that the postoffice was a much cheaper and just as efficient a medium for transmitting money as the express companies.

The La Follette people plan to hold a big conference in Madison about the end of congress, to be attended by the Senator himself.

Some of the insurgents wish to retire Cannon before this session ends, but the majority believe it will be better to save him as an issue against the regulars. ARGENTINA IN FESTAL ARRAY

BEGINS CELEBRATION OF ITS CENTENNIAL

U. S. CRUISERS ON SCENE

And Likewise a Squadron of Four British Gunboats—Two International Expositions Opened.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Buenos Ayres, May 25.—Argentina looked backward one hundred years today and bowed low to the little band of patriots of Buenos Ayres who compelled the last of the Spanish viceroys to resign, an act which broke the power of the Madrid government and marked the beginning of the present independent republic. The boom of guns at dawn today ushered in the centennial celebration, for which preparations have years, and which will continue in one form or another until next December. From the capital and metropolitan down to the smallest village and hamlet of the republic the populace is giving itself up to the joyousness of the occasion.

One of the most pleasing features of the occasion is that Argentina is not alone in its celebrating. At the splendid military port of Bahia Blanca 300 miles south of the capital, there is some of the finest fighting ships of the navies of Europe and America, all of which are proud of the privilege of having a share in Argentina's festivities. The American cruisers, Montana, South Dakota, North Carolina and Tennessee and the scout cruiser Chester are there, together with a British squadron consisting of the cruisers Argyll, Harmer and Amethyst, under the command of Rear Admiral George La. Clere Barton.

Quartered in the best hotels of Buenos Ayres or at the residences of the leading citizens are many foreign statesmen and soldiers of note, who have come to present to the republic the congratulations and good wishes of the governments. Foremost among these special ambassadors is Major General Leonard Wood, Chief of Staff of the United States Army. The great event today was the formal opening of the international exhibitions by Dr. Jose Figueroa Alcorta, the President of the Republic. There are two of these international shows. One is the railway and land transport exposition, devoted entirely to that branch of industry and including everything pertaining to locomotion from the horse car to the airplane. The second international exposition is an agricultural and live stock show, which comprises exhibits from all parts of the world. Among the nations that have sent exhibits to the two expositions are Great Britain, the United States, Japan, Germany, Belgium, France, Italy and Holland.

A third exposition, national in scope, is devoted to an illustration of the industrial progress of Argentina during the first century of its independent existence.

In addition to their expositions there are to be numerous other interesting features in connection with the next few months. In Buenos Ayres and in all other cities of the country the municipalities and voluntary citizens committees have prepared for elaborate festivities.

One of the most important events will be the assembling in this city of the Fourth International American Conference, which has its headquarters in Washington, and which will be attended by distinguished delegates from the United States, Mexico and the republics of Central and South America.

The dedication of a number of national memorials are to be included in the program of the centennial celebration. In the principal park of Buenos Ayres a great monument is to be erected to commemorate the birth of the republic. There will also be unveiled statues of several of the heroes who first raised the standard of independence against Spain and of the foremost leaders among the patriots who comprised the congress which met in the City of Tucuman, in July, 1816, and issued a declaration of independence. Fifteen years later, after a valiant and unending struggle against great odds, the declaration of independence signed at Tucuman became accomplished fact and Spain lost her last claim upon American territory.

PETITION FOR NEW DRAINAGE PROJECT IN TOWN OF AVON

Has Been Filed in Circuit Court—Ditch to Reclaim Large Area North of Sugar River.

On motion of Burr Sprague, attorney representing petitioners who own more than one half of the land in that particular locality, Judge Grimm has ordered that a petition for the organization of a second drainage district in the town of Avon—located north of the Sugar river and to be known as the Stokes drainage canal—and the appointment of commissioners for the execution of the work shall be heard at the court house at 3 p. m. on July 11.

Those owning the land in the said district are: William Palmer, W. R. Lawson, Martin E. Peterson, J. H. Heath, John Gilchrist, Leroy Stokes, George Parker, L. M. Mann of Des Moines, Ole J. Fjeldstad, George Stokes, Solomon Stuekey of New Orleans, J. G. Smith, F. Valmor, Elizabeth Starr, J. W. Burtha, J. B. Johnson, N. Hines, D. Smith, Lulu Starr, Carlo Starr, and Glenn Starr. The list included all of the landholders with the exception of the owners of the north of the sugar river and that part of the north of the sugar river which lies north of the Sugar river who are unknown to the petitioners and the signatures of the first eleven mentioned appear on the petition.

This is the route to be traversed by the proposed canal. Starting from a point near the southwest corner of the north of the sugar river, the line of the canal will run nearly a direct line to a point at or near the center of the north of the sugar river, thence south to the terminal thereof at the intersection with the Sugar river at or near the center of the north of the sugar river. It will cross parts of Sections 22, 27, and 28.

The District No. 1 canal which was completed some time ago at a cost approximating $22,000 and which traverses an area south of the Sugar river, starts at the west line of Section 30; has its terminus at an intersection with the Sugar river in the north of the sugar river about six rods north of the Illinois state line; and traverses parts of Sections 31, 29, 33, 34, and 35.

A NEW ANTISEPTIC.

Germs enter the human body through the mouth or throat and through the skin whenever there is a cut or scratch. A little care in the beginning will prevent almost every case of blood poisoning, diphtheria, scarlet fever, tonsillitis, and other germ diseases if people would only remember to make the mouth, throat or every scratch or wound antiseptic at once with Thym Ozon, the new antiseptic which is a new germ killer but not a poison to the healthy flesh. Thym Ozon is composed of Oxygen, Thymol, Water-glycerine, Eucalyptus and other strong but not poisonous antiseptics. It acts at once, purifies every wound, heals cinder sores, ring worm, eruptions of the skin, cleans the mouth and nasal passages of germs, boils and ulcers are made clean in a few hours. Thym Ozon reduced with glycerine and warm water is the best remedy for Nasal catarrh. It's healing, soothing and antiseptic effect is noticed at once. Every family should have a bottle in the house to apply to any wound. Don't take chances of getting blood poison. Thym Ozon is sold only by the Budger Drug Co., Milwaukee and River streets, at 25c per bottle.

You need not suffer from sickness and you need not fill yourself with drugs in order to be made well.

The great new science of Chiropractic (CHI-RO-PRAK-TIK) has shown the world that in order to be made well and to remain well it is necessary to remove the cause of the affliction and that treating symptoms with medicine is not as practical as the Chiropractic adjustment. Every nerve in the entire body which controls every function and organ of the entire human system and every nerve (from 100,000 in all) pass through the spine. When certain nerves do not perform their functions you become sick. The way to remove the cause of the sickness is to get at the nerves that are not working. This is done by Chiropractic adjustments of the spine. Almost every ailment is curable by the Chiropractic science. If you suffer from sickness of any kind, call for free consultation and advice.

TEXAS BANKING.

The state of Texas has a bank guarantee law and this is how it works at the little city of De Kalb, as told by an eastern correspondent.

"A bank without any depositors or customers of any sort has been running at De Kalb for several months, in the face of the opposition of the State Bank Commissioner, W. D. Hawkins, and his persistent efforts to close it. Commissioner Hawkins did go so far as to close the doors of the institution temporarily, but injunction proceedings were brought against him, and resulted in the reopening of the bank.

"It is an interesting situation. The stockholders of the bank, which is called the Sanders State Bank, are well satisfied with the absolute lack of business of the institution. Bankers all over the country are interested in the fight, which the bank is waging against the state bank commissioner. W. D. Hawkins, cashier of the bank, recently filed suit against Commissioner Hawkins for $50,000 damages for the latter's alleged interference with the business of the bank. Mr. Sanders gives the following explanation of the situation:

"The De Kalb Exchange Bank, a private institution, was organized in 1887, and has been continually in business since. It has had its ups and downs—most of the time down—but managed to pull along to the present time.

"We were opposed to the guaranty law as passed by the last legislature. We are still opposed to it, and expect to give it a rap whenever the opportunity offers. It not being our pleasure to turn our private bank into a state bank, and not feeling disposed to sit still and have a competitor yell 'guarantee' at our customers, we organized the Sanders State Bank, putting in an expensive set of mahogany fixtures and fitting up a first-class banking room in every respect. A circular letter was issued and mailed to every customer of our private bank, giving our reasons for starting the state bank, and advising them to do business with the bank that suited them best—that we owned both banks, and that was a case of 'pay your money and take your choice.'

"After four months of business, we issued a statement showing that our private bank customers had taken their choice, with the result that the Sanders State Bank had one customer, with a deposit of $200, while on the same date the De Kalb Exchange Bank had over $175,000 in few days after the State Bank deposit was withdrawn and placed with the private bank.

"Our banking friends over the state had more or less sport out of us on this account, and considered it a great joke on the guaranty law. Some papers published this statement with some rather caustic comments on the guaranty law, and these reports, reaching the department of banking at Austin, caused us to get in bad with the powers that be.

"Our old customers still refused to do business with our state bank, and the business of the private bank continued to grow. The Sanders State Bank was open about twelve hours a day, and seven days in every week, for business, but none came. This state of affairs seemed to get on the nerves of the banking commissioner, who claimed that we were ridiculing the guaranty law, and holding his department up to public contempt, and we were notified that the banking board would consider his motion to forfeit our permit.

"The banking board subsequently sustained the bank's position."

MR. ROOSEVELT'S MAIL.

A writer in the Outlook has an interesting story about the size and variety of ex-President Roosevelt's mail. Ever since he went abroad he has been besieged with all sorts of letters from all parts of the world.

"Even while he was in Africa, Mr. Roosevelt received requests that, without exaggeration, may be called appalling in their number and character. A favorite request was for tigers' claws, the writers being in beautiful ignorance of the fact that no tigers are found in Africa. Other unknown correspondents frequently asked for lions' claws, apparently not understanding that to take off the claws of course ruins the skin, so that each request was practically that Mr. Roosevelt should go out and kill a lion exclusively for the benefit of a correspondent of whose previous existence he had never heard. He was appealed to for monkeys, parrots and lion cubs by other well-meaning people; one gentleman wanted a pair of small elephants, another a pair of zebras, another a two hundred and fifty pound snake—these requests evidently being made in blind ignorance of the fact that to meet them would have demanded a totally different type of expedition, especially equipped at a cost of many thousands of dollars, to catch wild animals for the purpose of distributing them gratis to unknown individuals. As for requests for horns and skins on the part of men who apparently thought that the expedition was conducted on a broad eleventh-hour basis, they were legion—one man standing out above his fellows because of his modest request for 'enough leopard skins to make an overcoat.'

Things Sent for Approval.

"All sorts of things are sent for his inspection or approval, or to reinforce a request for his special aid. Birth certificates, university diplomas and papers of this kind are forwarded to him by writers who apparently suppose that he has nothing to do but to make pencils and packages and buy postage stamps. One lady in Austria enclosed some well-worn newspaper clippings evidently taken from her most precious archives, one of them being an obituary notice of her late husband and the other a description of the costume she wore when she was presented some years ago at one of the royal courts of Europe. Another lady, a Russian, mailed to Mr. Roosevelt some papers connected with her son's university career, and because she did not get a personal reply by return of mail called at the hotel at 7 o'clock in the morning in a state of great agitation which was really pathetic to behold."

Uncle Walt

THE POET PHILOSOPHER

BY WALT MASON.

(Copyright, 1909, by George Matthews Adams.)

The wedding day is bright and gay, the bride is blushing like a rose; the happy pair are free from care as on their honeymoon they roam. A little while they live AFTER THE on smiles and glances, WEDDING, and whispered adoration; but honeymooners pass by oftentimes, and then there comes a strained relation. The husband sighs when eating peas suggestive of some kind of leather; he gives a whoop when tasting soup that makes his molars run together. He never thought before he brought the blushing damsel to the altar to ask if she could cook so he could eat her grub and never falter. The bride is filled with grief and 'chilled with dread; the skies seem dark above her; he stays away for half a day, and doesn't wear hell always' face-her. Have patience, thought! This platoon war will pass away, as they grow younger! The bride will bake a dazling cake, and pick to soothe her husband's hunger! And he will learn to pause and turn, when leaving for his daily duty, and tell his wife that she's his life, his solace and his dream of beauty!

Yankee Bread Not Made From Bleached Flour

For we use a different method—we blend our flours.

One kind of flour we buy is from wheat rich in gluten, another famous for its starch and still another from a wheat grown in a region where moisture is plentiful.

Thus we obtain a uniform quality in every loaf and absolute purity in every grain. For we regard purity and cleanliness above all things as essential to good bread making.

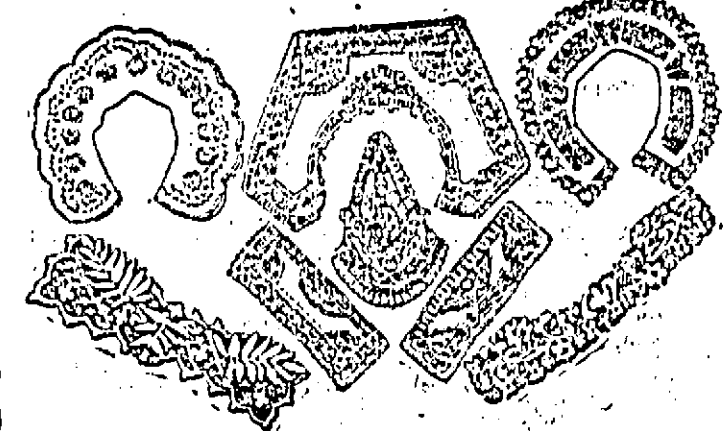

Try a loaf—today—5c from the grocer or our wagons, fresh each morning.

You will find it "good to the last crumb."

Daily Dental Experiences

Yesterday was not an unusual day with me, yet it was remarkably unusual and satisfactory to a lot of suffering people who sought my aid in their needs.

The first thing in the morning I extracted nine badly broken down roots. The patient said:

"It was the easiest job he ever had done."

Next was an extraction for a third nervous patient.

Results—the same. No Pain.

And so on, all day.

Two teeth for another patient who was so gratified at the actual absence of all pain that she said:

"Why, Dr. Richards, you are a Prisoner of a Dentist."

Then in came a gang of boys to witness the fun of one of their number having his teeth drawn.

Now let me tell you, you can't fool a boy. If it hurts, he will tell you so.

The tooth came hard, and I asked him if it hurt.

He said it didn't.

On the way home I passed this same bunch of boys with him in the center, telling his experiences, and I heard him say again that it didn't hurt him a bit.

He manfully stood by his statement although the other boys gaped him.

They were like some older folks. They wouldn't believe it.

The only way to be convinced that I can really take out your teeth without hurting you is to give you a chance to prove it in your own mouth.

WILLIAM FARMER
TAKES OWN LIFE

ENDS EXISTENCE WITH A BULLET THIS MORNING AT SEVEN.

MOTIVE FOR ACT UNKNOWN

Deceased Was A Life Long Resident of Janesville and A Prominent Mason.

Shortly before seven o'clock this morning, while his wife was busy in the yard, William A. Farmer, 230 Fourth Ave., a former employee of the New Gas Light Company for twenty-two years, prominent in Masonic circles and well known throughout the city, placed a revolver to his right temple and sent a bullet crashing into his brain. Death was instantaneous and when his wife, alarmed by the report, rushed into the house, she found all that was mortal of her husband, lying on the edge of the bed in a pool of blood with the revolver lying on the floor where it had fallen from his hand.

No definite reason for Farmer's rash act was assigned except that in a moment of mental aberration, the result of a long period of despondency, he decided to put an end to his troubles. For twenty-two years Mr. Farmer had been employed by the New Gas Light Company, recently as an outside foreman. Ten days ago, circumstances arose which, to his mind, made it impossible to remain in the employ of the company any longer and he gave up his position. Between the date of his resignation and the time of his death, he had engaged in no other occupation. It is thought that worry regarding his lack of employment caused him to take his life.

In addition to being well known and universally liked in the city, the deceased, who was born and passed the entire forty-eight years of his life in Janesville, was a thirty-second degree Mason, and a member of the Consistory and the Shrine. He also belonged to the Fire Police. The news of his death came as a shock to his many friends in the city who had no suspicion that he was troubled in any way and who have expressed their sympathy to his relatives in their bereavement.

Immediately after it was discovered that Farmer had shot himself, Dr. G. C. Wandle was summoned and made examination which showed that life was extinct and that death had been instantaneous. Chief Appleby was also notified and inspected the premises. At the time of the examination, the body, which had not been disturbed, was found partially clothed lying on the edge of the bed. Farmer had evidently started to dress and dress, while his wife was absent, to take his life. After firing the fatal shot, he had fallen backward on the bed. The revolver, which was a five shot, thirty-two calibre, was found on the floor near the head of the bed where it had dropped from his hand. The first attempt had been unsuccessful, as the cartridge failed to explode but the second shot took effect.

Mr. Farmer was born Oct. 25, 1852, and passed his entire life in this city, attending the public schools of this city and working continuously in various capacities for the New Gas Light Company since 1888. He is survived by his wife, his mother, Mrs. Jane Farmer, three sisters, Mrs. E. E. Shubert, Mrs. W. C. Huggett and Mrs. Del Gower, all of this city and one brother, George Farmer, also of Janesville.

The funeral will be held under the auspices of the Masons at the Masonic Temple, Friday afternoon at half past two.

JIM BROWN OF JOHNSTOWN BROKE LOOSE AT MADISON

After Nearly A Year's Absence From the Rock County Asylum—Supt. Barlow Went After Him Today.

Jim Brown of Johnstown, who was released from the Rock county asylum last June on promises from Charles Campbell and Robert McDowell that his conduct would be beyond reproach, completed a fifteen day jail sentence for drunkenness in Madison this week and last night applied at the state insane asylum, where he received treatment some ten or twelve years ago, for lodging. Dr. Gort, the superintendent, telephoned to David Barlow, head of the Rock county asylum, this morning that the man was on the verge of becoming a trouble maker and requested the latter to come after him at once. Mr. Barlow left for Madison this morning. Brown is well enough equipped mentally to get along in the world when he leaves liquor alone.

JANESVILLE ELKS TO GO TO MENASHA SOON

Local Lodge Unites With State Association and Will Be Well Represented at Gathering.

Janesville Elks will be the guests of Lodge No. 674, B. P. O. E., which is going to try to "make good" when on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 7 and 8, it acts as host to the state convention of Elks.

The Elks' convention of 1910 bids fair to become an epoch in Neenah and Menasha history, as it is the first time that the cities have decided on a feeling of kinship in an event of mutual benefit. To Menasha lodge probably will rest the distinction of beginning the actual elimination of that bitter strife and feeling that has existed between Neenah and Menasha since there was a town here.

The big event of the convention no doubt will be the water carnival and motor boat races on Wednesday.

Menasha crafts will be here from Fond du Lac, Oshkosh, Neenah, Menasha, Appleton, Kaukauna and Green Bay.

The next important event will be the stag dinner at Brighton Beach hotel Tuesday evening, at which W. M. Gilbert of Neenah will preside. Gov. Davidson will be present and some of the most prominent men in the state will respond to toasts.

Made will be everywhere, concerts galore, and promiscuous, two crowds of men are rushing work on new street construction in hand, for Main street will boast three-quarters of a mile of concrete by that time. The official program as arranged to date is as follows:

Tuesday a. m.—Reception to visiting Elks and ladies; business session, opening at 9 o'clock; address of welcome by Exalted Ruler A. H. Wheeler; auto rides and boat rides.

Women to be Entertained;

Tuesday p. m.—Business meeting; more rides and music, with the stag banquet at Brighton Beach hotel in the evening; entertainment for visiting ladies by the Ladies' auxiliary.

Wednesday a. m.—Unfinished business, followed by auto parties and boat rides until 2 o'clock p. m., when the annual Elks' parade in costume will be held.

Wednesday evening—Water carnival and fireworks, followed by the convention hall.

VALUABLE ROOSTER STOLEN MONDAY NIGHT BY THIEVES

"Ducero," the famous Cuban fighting game cock owned by Mrs. John Manning, was stolen from his coop in the rear of the Manning home on Monday night by chicken thieves. Two other chickens were also taken at the same time. "Ducero" is a very valuable bird and the only one of its special breed in the city.

THINKS STIFF IS ALREADY REPENTANT

Sister of Man Who Ran Away With Mrs. Charles Story Is Here Seeking Clue to His Whereabouts.

Mrs. H. Schlem of Evansville, brother of Arthur Story who deserted his wife and six children, and ran away with Mrs. Charles Story, came to Janesville today in the hope of obtaining some clue to the whereabouts of her brother. She is confident that he already regrets the move he has made and that if she could see him and the authorities would take care of his family he would return and do what he could to make reparation for the wrong he has done. Up to the time of this elopement, Story bore an unblemished reputation and his friends would be glad to see him back again. "I know it isn't just the right way to feel, but rather than see him go to the penitentiary and fill his mother's declining years with sorrow, I'd take the children and do everything in my power to keep him whereabouts unknown," said Mrs. Schlem this afternoon and she broke down and wept.

SECURING WORKMEN

Contractors Will Bring in Enough Masons to Do All the Work That They Have in Hand.

As a result of the meeting between the contractors and the officers and directors of the Industrial and Commercial club Monday evening, the contractors have been assured of the hearty co-operation of the club in securing masons from outside the city to take the place of the strikers. There is no hope of any settlement of the differences which have tied up building for several months and the contractors are now making arrangements to bring in plenty of outside workmen to meet all the demands made upon them. The general opinion is that the masons have done a very unwise thing in holding out as they have and that no consideration is due them in the matter.

KATAHDIN SUNK BY WILD SHOT.

U. S. Defense Ram at Bottom of Potomac, in Report.

Washington, May 25.—The United States harbor defense ram Katahdin has been sunk in the Potomac river by a misdirected shot fired in target tests.

The shot which sunk the vessel missed the heavily armored target attached to the vessel's side and plowed through the hull nearly amidships.

It is not known whether there was any one on board the Katahdin at the time.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"W" IS SHOULD mark on moral qualities, not merely mental attainment or proficiency," says Elbert Hubbard in speaking of schools, "because in the case of life only moral qualities count." There is one moral quality that I sincerely wish could be taught thoroughly in our schools. I wish there might be a course in it every year from kindergarten to the last year of college, and that quality is "consideration for the rights and privileges of other people."

Show me the man or woman who does not forget at least two or three times a day that he lives in a world with other men and women, and I will show you a really.

And before you vote yourself into that class, let me translate my abstract into the concrete, and tell you a few of the people who need a course in the rights and privileges of others.

I suppose I scarcely need mention one class that is exceptionally prevalent this season, and that is the woman with the hat so large as to seriously inconvenience people about her.

Again and again this spring I have seen people in some crowded space forced to stand with necks agonizingly crooked to one side so that there might be room for the woman with the straw cartwheel on her head.

One state in the Union has passed a law that no woman shall wear a hat more than five feet in circumference. If we saw such a law in some book on old-time customs how we would laugh at it, and yet such a law is necessary today.

Been to the theatre lately? If you have, you have doubtless met another type of the person painfully lacking in an appreciation of the rights and privileges of others, and that is the man who wriggles and crawls past half a dozen to a dozen people at least once or twice during the evening to get his between-the-nets smoke.

For the man who can't possibly sit through two hours and a half without a smoke there are just two places in the theatre, and one is the end seat and the other is outside the door.

How do you carry your umbrella? Close to your side, or at such an angle that anyone who doesn't give you a respectful ten-foot leeway is pretty sure to be impaled upon it?

When you meet someone you know on the street, do you draw up in the middle of the sidewalk, and let everybody circle around you?

When you see something in a window that interests you, do you stop so short that the person behind tumbles over you, or do you remember that you live in a world with other people, and look out for them?

When you are hot do you immediately open a window, and when you are cold as promptly turn on the steam, without any inquiry as to the temperature of the rest of the people in the room or office with you?

Do your hatpins extend beyond your hatbrim?

There are just a few suggestions, to illustrate why very few people can qualify as having a thorough respect for the rights and privileges of other people.

Perhaps I haven't touched your own particular disrespects at all, but if I've just given you the clue to them I'm quite satisfied.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS.

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles. A Janesville Citizen Shows How to Cure Them.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Janesville people testify to permanent cures.

C. F. Lester, 1017 Wheeler St., Janesville, Wis., says: "I was in poor health for several months. My whole system seemed to be filled with uric acid, as I ached all over and felt miserable. I had but little strength or energy, and my kidneys did not act normally. I decided to try a tonic for my kidneys, and having often heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from the People's Drug Co., feeling better in a short time after beginning their use, and for that reason have no hesitation in saying that Doan's Kidney Pills are an excellent kidney remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

GOOD VERSUS GOD.

By MARY RUSSELL.

I sat in an audience and listened to a man who felt that the divine impulse to preach had been laid on him. He was an earnest man—and as sincere. He preached lovingly of the book which he termed "my Bible."

There was such an air of finality in the tone as he used it that it seemed that the Book of Books had been written for him alone.

nothing counted but the faith in unseen powers.

What a belief! Think of a life darkened by such a cloud—and then think how much harm is done by such teaching. A boy with a strong faith in "the Son of Man" might shape his life in the ways that lead to perdition and in the promise induced by such a creed.

No man may live with pure ideals and not hope for the perfect peace when life shall end.

No man who lives in an ideal relation of brotherhood with man need fear. The power which put us here is not going to take hope away from us with one bitter word or cruel. Only man does that. Only man dares to be so cruel.

There should be some way to suppress such teachings. A man who could believe in such a God is not fit to teach among young people who are full of doubts and fears.

Surely man has wrapped his religious beliefs and creeds in many garments. He has thought of many and dire punishments to be bestowed by one whose very name means "Good."

When we study the question we know all life and all faith has been colored by man's fear. The unknown has been magnified until this distorted night-mare belief is the result.

Some mothers frighten their little children about the dark. The imaginative child will shudder and cower from the black night. He sees dreadful creatures where in the daylight all is beautiful.

Just so are we—little frightened children seeing strange shadows in the dark.

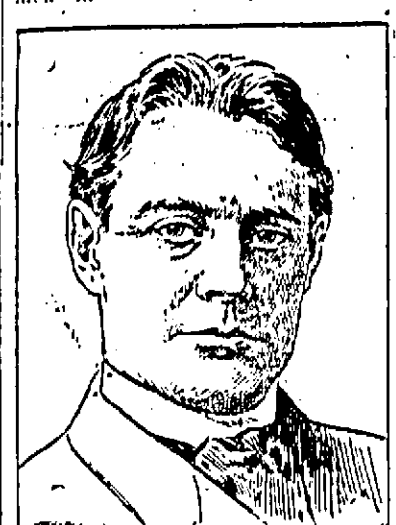

If we could only remember that God is Love—if we stopped long enough to think that "God as a father pitied" his children—is just as true word of God as the strange interpretations of a distorted belief we would rest serene in a faith which will last through time and eternity.

BEVERIDGE CANDIDATES WIN.

Taggart's Legislative Slate Also Succeeds at Indianapolis Primaries.

Indianapolis, May 25.—With many reputable Democrats and Republicans on guard the primaries passed off very quietly and when the polls closed it was believed that there had been very little, if any, illegal voting. It is estimated by returns from a majority of the precincts that less than 60 per cent of the vote of the two parties was cast, and this in the face of the fact that full county and legislative tickets were to be nominated.

The interest manifested by business men in the candidacy of Senator

Senator Beveridge.

Beveridge bore fruit at the polls, and his friends are rejoicing in the nomination of eight men, all of whom are enthusiastic in his support.

Tom Taggart's supremacy in Democratic politics was again asserted, and his legislative slate was chosen and his candidates for a majority of the positions on the county ticket also pulled through.

All the men selected for the legislature by the Democrats are opposed to the present county local option law and all the Republicans are in favor of it.

Albany, N. Y., May 25.—Vice-President James H. Perkins, representing the National Commercial bank, and President Frederick A. Mead, acting for the First National bank, both of this city, took formal charge of the business of the firm of Durant & Elmore, grain merchants. The two institutions held upward of $500,000 of the company's paper secured by bills of lading of the Delaware & Hudson railroad for grain cargoes.

Arrangement was made that the banks intended to act for the firm's creditors in liquidating the business of the company to avoid the expense of a receivership.

BELGIAN WORKERS

ARRIVE FOR WORK

SECOND INSTALLMENT OF SUGAR
BEET EXPERTS REACHES CITY.

TO BE HIRED BY FARMERS

Will Find Steady Employment Until Late in the Fall—Many Families in the Party.

With about thousand five hundred hectares of beets planted, and two hundred and fifty Belgian beet workers distributed among the thousand farmers who will dispose of their crop to the local factory, the 1910 season of the Rock County Sugar Company can safely be said to be in full swing.

For some time the company has been preparing for spring work, but have kept their plans under cover and quietly secured their field hands in order that their men might not be induced to leave by rival concerns.
Over two hundred and fifty have been hired and a major portion distributed among the farmers who have signed contracts to dispose of their beets to the Janesville factory. The field force is by no means complete as yet, but the remaining seventy-five or a hundred needed will be secured as soon as possible.

Nearly every county in Southern Wisconsin, and Northwestern Illinois is represented in the acreage controlled by the local company. Although last year was almost a record breaker as regards the amount of beets sown, the coming season, under favorable conditions, is expected to exceed any past year. The total acreage has been increased twenty per cent and with good luck the crop will be increased a corresponding amount. The beets are all under ground, and the weather, even if cool, is considered fairly favorable.

That the best sugar industry is confined simply to the extraction of sugar from the beets, is a general but erroneous impression. The mechanical and manufacturing end as it might be called is only a part of the business for the real work commences early in the spring when the beets are planted. A special force of men, including an agricultural superintendent, W. W. Woolf, his assistant, Elmer Bullard, and other assists, is required to look after this end of the work.

Beet culture requires much manual labor and in this part of the country, farmers are unable to give much time nor have they enough workers for these hard operations. To offset this, the company is forced to hire enough extra laborers to take care of the crops. These men, who are mostly foreigners, generally Belgians, are furnished transportation to this city at their own expense.

Over two hundred and fifty have been imported this spring and about seventy-five or a hundred more are needed. The last carload arrived last night and were distributed this morning. All of them, the Belgians in particular, are experienced beet workers and will draw good wages, $2 or better a day, from now until the close of the season which will be about Nov. 1.

Many families are included in the parties and every member of the household, young and old, works.
The laborers are lodged on the premises of the farmer for whom they work, and when tobacco sheds or tenant houses are not available, they take to tents. They also provide and cook their own meals. There is scarcely any complaint that these laborers shirk, for they are willing and capable workmen. Although the company secures the laborers, they are paid by the farmers for whom they work, the wages being subtracted from the amount brought by the beets at the factory.

Few of the best workers come from this part of the country, but were secured by the Rock County firm from Madison, Rock Island, and Kewanee, Ill., Cincinnati, O., and Omaha, Neb.
They have all had their early training in the curing for the beets in the fields of their native land, throughout Germany and in southern Russia and are experts in their line of work.

When the plant is ready to begin receiving its beets, another class of workmen are employed at the factory and the receiving stations. These consist mostly of Americans, although almost every nationality is represented.
They are quartered at the factory in rough huts built for their accommodation and each house has its patrons, who superintend their work and attends to the buying of supplies and acts as general advisor.
They also board themselves.

ENJOYABLE BANQUET

OF AFTERNOON CLUB

Loisig Sides in Year's Contest Ban-queted the Winners at Baptist Church Last Friday.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Janesville, May 24.—For the past two years the membership of the Afternoon club has been divided into four classes, A, B, C, D, and all classes striving for credits. At the close of the year's work the two defeated classes must entertain the two winning classes. Accordingly, the reception and entertainment given at the Baptist church last Friday evening to the winning classes and to the public in large was a fulfillment of the contract. It was a very delightful occasion and reflects much credit upon the losing classes and also upon the club they represent and also upon the church where an informal social was held. Later, they were ushered into the church proper where they were delightfully entertained with the evening's program. Mrs. Walter Green gave a short outline of the work done by the club and announced the program as follows:

Violin duet—Mrs. Holmes, Miss Maud
Combs.

Reading—Miss Ruth Humphrey,
Janesville.

Piano solo—Olive Laddington.

Then followed "Aunt Melissa's Portrait Album." The part of "Aunt Melissa" was taken by Mrs. O. C. Colony, and by turns she showed her audience
the portraits of her father, mother, husband, aunts, uncles—in fact, all members of her family, keeping up a running comment about each one as they were presented. The "portraits" were very good and the effective "acting" of each one taking part showed that they were masters of the art.

One of the whole, the event was a very pleasant one and all voted their hostesses delightful entertainers.

His chance he had a taste of Grape-enjoyed the flavor so much that he began to have it every meal. He says:

"In a short time I found myself
another person, the old feeling of discontent and uneasiness left me entirely. It became a pleasure to go about my work, whereas, before, for years, I had always had the feeling of being a little weary, now I seem to have a surplus of energy for everything. My weight has increased 11 pounds in 4 weeks, and I am still gaining."

"I have never been very sick, and am satisfied that if my present improvement in health continues, I shall not be."

"The chance that this food has made in my life has been remarkable and so satisfactory that I am glad of the opportunity to tell you."

SUPREME COURT HAS

DECIDED THE SUITS

Four Important Cases Decided by the Court—Two Cases Reversed—
Two Affirmed.

The supreme court has decided four cases, handing down its opinion late yesterday. No. 142 and No. 1 on the court calendar are affirmed and Nos.
147 and 149 are reversed. The two cases in which the decision of the circuit court was affirmed were:

No. 1, State—Bell Osborn, plaintiff
in error, vs. State, defendant in error.
Osborn was convicted by a jury in the circuit court for Winnebago county of murder in the second degree and sentenced to twenty-one years in state's prison. Previously his plea of insanity had been turned down by a jury in the Marquette county circuit court, and upon two fact that he had been tried before two juries Osborn's attorneys rested their efforts to free him, holding that he had been in jeopardy.

On May 19, 1908, Osborn, with his wife, went to the house in Marquette where Louis Tobaltz was residing.
Osborn told his wife to rap on the door, and she obeyed. Tobaltz opened the door and seeing Osborn, started to shut it, but a shot was fired by Osborn and the bullet severed an artery in To-baltz's arm. For some time Tobaltz raged between life and death and he finally died after a woman attendant had torn the bandage from his arm at his own request. Osborn, who was said to be an epileptic, was placed upon trial before Judge Burn-nell in Marquette county. Upon his interposing a plea of insanity, trial was had on this issue and the jury returned a verdict declaring him sane.
Then Judge Burnnell, being informed of the serious illness of his wife, asked attorneys for both sides to agree to a stipulation that the trial on the charge of murder should take place in Winnebago county, in order that the judge might be nearer his sick wife; and that the Marquette jury be discharged. The defense, however, reserved the right to move to set aside the verdict by which Osborn was declared sane and demand a retrial.
Upon such motion being made, Judge Burnnell denied it and held that in the trial for murder in Winnebago county, the jury would be bound by the dict of the Marquette county jury on the insanity issue. Osborn then was tried and found guilty in Winnebago county and sentenced to prison.

No. 142—State ex rel Fred Schuetz, plaintiff and respondent, vs. C. P.
Carroll, superintendent of public instruction, defendant and appellant.

Supt. Carroll reversed the order of the town board of Centerville, Manitowish county, ordering the creation of a new school district. The circuit court reversed Supt. Carroll's order and the latter appealed.

No. 147—Matter of estate of James Kavanaugh. Appeal from judgment of circuit court of Manitowish county, which held in effect that Kavanaugh's
will, which bequeathed
